RE: Proposal to Delete the LAN Minor in Latin for Teacher Education

The University Curriculum Committee has approved and is forwarding for Academic Senate review the attached Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures proposal to delete the Minor in Latin for Teacher Education.

Languages, Literatures, and Cultures recommends the deletion of the teacher education minor because “this specific track offers no additional coursework beyond the Minor in Latin.” The only course that is listed under the teacher education minor and not in the other is LAN 319. They indicate that this course in teaching methodology is more appropriate for modern languages. The author of the proposal indicates that students will still be able to receive endorsement by passing the state of Illinois content test, which will be noted in the catalog copy of the Minor in Latin.

If approved by the Academic Senate the Minor in Latin for Teacher Education will be removed from the 2008-2010 Undergraduate Catalog.
