According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics the demand for forensic science technicians is expected to grow by 15% between 2024 and 2034 (much faster than for all occupations 4%). Moreover, entry level positions that require this bachelor's degree enjoy a median starting salary of $65,000. (BLS Occupational Outlook Handbook, August 29, 2024) In 2023 and 2024 we have seen steady interest in this sequence as evidenced by increased attendance at Redbird Days, direct inquiries during the academic sessions and increased attendance of our tours of the Research and Training Center (crime lab and scenes) as well as an increase in waitlist numbers on the courses directly associated with the sequence. Our current enrollment is 559, we have room to grow in our major and can offer additional seats/sections. This degree will provide our CJS majors with specialized preparation for a variety of career paths including Crime Scene Investigations, Evidence Laboratory Technician, and valuable skills to aide in careers in law enforcement, corrections, and courts. Utilizing ISU's state of the art forensic science research and training facility (604 N. Adelaide) and the combined skills of our faculty and staff it is our intention to graduate skilled, ethical, criminal justice professionals who will enter the career field with the advantage of advanced training and skills.
