Notes for Table 1:

This is a proposal to change from a B.A.B.S. in Family and Consumer Sciences with a sequence in Food, Nutrition and Dietetics to a B.A.B.S. in Food, Nutrition and Dietetics. In Fall 2013, the Census Day headcount enrollment for the Food, Nutrition and Dietetics sequence was 123. This enrollment has been stable for a number of years and we anticipate it will remain so. A change in the FCS Core will reduce the number of credit hours required by two, and we anticipate no change in enrollments in the program, so all facility and staffing needs will remain the same. The Department of Family and Consumer Sciences is currently working with the College Office and Provost Office in the planning of a renovation to the existing foods laboratory. The new Culinary Arts Laboratory will provide outstanding support to this degree program.

Budget Rationale (as an attachment; include corresponding data in Table 2)

Provide financial data that document the department or school's capacity to implement and sustain the proposed program and describe the program's sources of funding.

- a. Is the unit's (College, Department, School) current operating budget adequate to support the program when fully implemented? If "yes", please explain. If new resources are to be provided to the unit to support the program, what will be the source(s) of these funds? [Table 2 – Section 1]

Yes. A change in the FCS Core will reduce the number of credit hours required, so the current facility and staffing plans (faculty and advisement) are adequate to support the change from sequence to degree. No new resources are being allocated to this program.

- b. Will current faculty be adequate to provide instruction for the new program? If "yes", please explain. Will additional faculty need to be hired? If additional hires will be made, please elaborate. [Table 2 – Section 2]

Yes. The Food, Nutrition and Dietetics program was recently updated via University curricular processes for the 2014-2016 catalog. This current request, which would become effective with the 2016-2018 catalog, will not make any additional changes to graduation requirements beyond the change to the FCS Core. There are adequate faculty to support the program.

- c. Will current staff be adequate to implement and maintain the new program? If "yes", please explain. Will additional staff be hired? Will current advising staff be adequate to provide student support and advisement, including job placement and or admission to advanced studies? If additional hires will be made, please elaborate. [Table 2 – Section 2]

No increase in enrollments are expected with the change from sequence to degree program so no additional faculty or staff (advisors or graduate assistants) will be hired. A full-time advisor handles all FCS advisement and will continue to do so as each of the sequences become degree programs.

- d. Are the unit's current facilities adequate to support the program when fully implemented? Will there need to be facility renovation or new construction to house the program? (For a new degree program describe in detail the facilities and equipment available to maintain high quality in this program including buildings, classrooms, office space, laboratories, equipment and other instructional technologies for the program). [Table 2 – Section 3]

There is a plan for renovation of the foods laboratory located in Turner Hall which is occurring independently of this request. This is an upgrade of the laboratory facility and equipment, but not an expansion of the teaching capacity of the lab. The renovation of the foods laboratory will begin in Summer 2015 and continue for at least one year. All other FND courses are taught in smart classrooms in Turner Hall and all faculty offices as well as the FCS Department Office are located in Turner Hall.

- e. Are library resources adequate to support the program when fully implemented? Please elaborate.

There is no change in the focus of the program and current library resources are adequate. The library liaison to the Department of Family and Consumer Sciences works diligently to ensure that food, nutrition and dietetics faculty are consulted when new resources are available or cuts need to be made to library holdings that affect this discipline.

- f. Are there any additional costs not addressed in items a. – d.? If “yes” please explain.
[Table 2 – Section 4]

No additional costs. If all program changes (sequences to degree programs) are approved, the department web site will be modified to reflect these changes. However, since the Department name is not changing, there will be no need for changes to print materials such as business cards or letterhead.

- g. Are any sources of funding temporary (e.g., grant funding)? If so, how will the program be sustained once these funds are exhausted?

No funds used to support this program are temporary.

- h. If this is a graduate program, discuss the intended use of graduate assistantships and where the funding for assistantships would come from.
